Who is eligible to apply to jury in for a Guild Gallery (3 mo.) or Satellite Gallery exhibit?

- Guild members in good standing (membership fees current)
- Guild members who contribute to the organization, with either volunteer or fiscal support.
- Non-Guild members for a short special exhibit connected to a special collaborative event
- Guild members who wish to hold a special event focused on their individual work (e.g. a book signing, a small solo show-with-in-a-show, a performance, a new series or of work)

What are the guidelines for eligibility of submissions?

- Submissions must be original, one-of-a-kind works by the member or, a limited-edition print/copy/or derivation from the original for a lower price.
- Design & construction must be the work of the artist. A collaborative creation is welcome, but a work designed and produced by a non-member and industrially manufactured is not.
- NOTE: Original electronic images, original prints and photographs, and paintings may be reproduced as cards, prints on paper or other media (metal, canvas, fabric) without limit and offered for sale in the gallery. Any original image or object that is sold to be mass produced and mass distributed, however, can only be shown one time in the gallery.
- We do not allow art that is: pornographic, morally objectionable in nature, or discriminatory with respect to a person's race, ethnicity, religion, gender, or sexual preference. We reserve the right to decline any juried artwork submission at our discretion.

Photo Policy: We kindly ask that when on-site at the Guild Gallery & Arts Center or at off-site Guild events, all members and visitors conduct themselves in a respectful manner. By entering the Guild Gallery & Art Center and associated Guild satellite galleries and events where you are lawfully present, you consent to the Guild, its Members, and visitors being able to engage in photography, audio recording, and video recording that may include your likeness or voice, and consent to the Guild's ability to release, publish, exhibit, or reproduce the images or recordings in order to promote the Guild and similar future events. You release the Guild, its officers, agents, representatives, and volunteers and each and all persons involved, from any liability connected with the Guild taking, recording, digitizing, publication and use of interviews, photographs, computer images, video and/or sound recordings at Guild events.

Please note that upon signing this document, your membership renewal date is 1 year from today _____. The Guild will reminder you via your preferred method 30 days prior. If your membership lapses, you will be given a 1-month grace period. If we do not hear from you during this time, we will assume you do not wish to renew. Dues payment will make your membership retroactive to your renewal date. You will be promptly removed from our Directory and Guild Website. Any items left with the Guild after the grace period will be considered Guild property and volunteer hours accrued will be set to zero. I have read and understand these policies:
